Hannover Messe 2007

Good morning

Are you one of the many Irish business-people hoping to visit the legendary Hannover Fair next April ? If you have ever been before you will know that it can take careful organising unless you are on an enormous or limitless budget. Hotel rooms will be very scarce before very long and those that will be available will run you about €250 - €300 per person per night. Add to that the complication and expense of getting to and from the fair.

Please allow me to offer you a package that will take ALL the effort out of the organising and leave you free to concentrate on the business end of the trip.

What I am proposing is a trip Monday - Friday 16th to 20 April 2007. The idea is to get there in time to relax and be ready to do battle on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the show and still be home on Friday in time to be able to enjoy the weekend and whatever it presents you with !!

The level of luxury offered in your accommodation is second to none. I have more than 10 yrs experience of what they have to offer and can guarantee that you will not be disappointed. Please have a look at some of the information below and see if you agree !!

2 bedrooms: 1 with double bed, 1 with twin beds bathroom with double washbasin, separate Turkish bath extra bathroom with bath and sauna or whirlpool separate toilet fully equipped kitchen
private terrace with garden furniture

fireplace, TV, Hifi-set/CD-player, telephone, carpet floor

Kitchen:

dishwasher, microwave oven, coffee machine, toaster

clock radio, electronic safe in one of the bedrooms

Even the most sceptical would have to agree that this is a MIGHTY step up from what some of us have experienced in the past ! Gone are the spare rooms in somebody's house - gone are the sparse breakfasts and non-existent entertainment when you are finished for the day

How about some of this

Buffet Breakfast included every morning

Start the day relaxed and in luxury. The best breakfast meals await you at the Market Restaurant. A rich and varied buffet will ensure a healthy start to the day!

Our Breakfast Arrangement will provide you with the ultimate holiday feeling

Unable to make a choice? Then take a taste of everything!

Unlimited Coffee & Tea in the mornings.....bliss !!

Choice of Restaurants & Bars
... even Draught GUINNESS !!

Nightly Entertainment

SubTropical Swimming Pool and Aqua Sana

Your stay includes a rental bicycle to get you from your luxury villa to the Centre ...don't worry ... we're only talking 5 or 6 minutes LEISURELY cycle here !!

.... And also to get you to your luxury coach in the mornings to relax on the short journey to Hannover. (45 minutes-ish) and then back for the evening to the Centre or your villa

PROPOSED ITINERARY

Monday 16th April 2007

Coach departs from Hamburg Airport at 4pm local time approximately for the short journey (approx 30 mins) to your resort. Once there myself and a colleague will assist in getting you to your VIP Villa with the minimum of fuss. We will be organising a short session in the centre to get you accustomed to your surroundings and answer any questions you may have regarding the resort and it's facilities and also the nearby town of Bispingen

After that the night is your own - take a swim or book a dinner table for later perhaps - or both

Tuesday 17th April 2007

Breakfast ... after your cycle !! In the fabulous buffet restaurant in the centre before your departure for the Fair arriving at 10:30 approx.

The day is your own to explore as you wish and to meet your suppliers - safe in the knowledge that you CAN have that beer if you want to you don't need to drive ! I would suggest however that you don't collect your catalogue until AFTER you walk around for the day.

We depart the Fair around 5:30 to be back in time to enjoy some of the multitude of facilities that are available to you in the resort. Ten-pin bowling anyone...perhaps even some friendly competition could be staged Or maybe just dinner and blow the froth off a few beers!!

The magnificent pool is open until 9pm nightly and can be very refreshing

Wednesday 18th April 2007

Same as Tuesday unless !!

Many people will find that 3 days running spent at the fair will be exhausting and may decide to take a day off. There are numerous things to do in this resort and it would be possible to organise some friendly sporting entertainment depending on the numbers.

For example there is a Golf course about 10 Km away and I have asked for information as to whether it would be possible to have a "Society Event"

In the centre itself I can organise Climbing, Abseiling, Squash, Badminton, Archery and a host of other interesting activities. Perhaps a day by the pool with your book would be more to your liking. The coach will still travel to Hannover and back each day regardless.

Thursday 19th April 2007

Back to the fair for your final rendezvous. The coach will pick up as normal for both journeys. If anybody would like to savour the nightlife in Hannover they need to arrange transportation back to the resort themselves. This gives you a chance to accept invitations from your suppliers to one of their traditional end-of-show parties !! Just make sure you do GET home!!

Friday 20th April 2007

How about a long leisurely breakfast followed by some souvenir hunting in the resort's shops? Your coach will depart sometime close to midday for the journey back to Hamburg Airport in time for 16:10 AerLingus flight back to Dublin

Interested ?

Curious ?

Amazed ?

Now for the nitty gritty. The cost of your trip is

€749.00

Total !! All of the above included !

PLEASE NOTE : FLIGHTS ARE NOT INCLUDED IN THIS PACKAGE

Now if I'm not mistaken - even taking the cost of your flights into account - that makes it less than the cost from about 6 years ago !! The BIG BIG difference is the level of luxury that you can expect in comparison to Fraulein Griselda's spare room. You can also arrange to fly direct rather than via London which will mean a LOT less time traveling than before.

Nothing is set in stone yet and ALL suggestions will be appreciated and considered. Extended breaks possible. Room only rates also possible if you wish to drive yourself

However in order to co-ordinate everything I need to assess the level of interest VERY shortly

AGAIN : FLIGHTS ARE NOT INCLUDED IN THIS PACKAGE

Part of the reason is in the uncertainty with costs but more importantly because of the latest security considerations at European Airports. I have however timed the trip to coincide with Aer Lingus flights on the 16th and 20th. These flights are currently available from approx. €160 return inclusive. You will also need to ensure that you have adequate travel insurance Obviously an up to date passport etc etc etc

all e & oe excluded
